CANBERRA DISTRICT WINE

About the Map

The details in the map are accurate at time of publishing in March 2021.

This Map features selected members of the Canberra District Wine Industry Association (CDWIA). The Association is the leading industry body for wine makers and related businesses in the region. Our purpose is to market, promote and develop Canberra District wine and grapes, and support wine industry tourism in the ACT and adjoining region. Our members produce wines with unique qualities derived from an environment like no other in Australia. The tranquil rural countryside around the ACT is home to 140 vineyards with more than 40 wineries within 35 minutes of Canberra.
